----Congress.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Hale offered s petition of citizens of New Hampsbire, praying the establishment of a system of instruction on board United States ships-of-Mr. Seward presented sundry private peti-1008, which were appropriately referred. Mr. Broderick introduced a bill to aid in perconstruction of railroads to the Pacific.

Mr. lverson offered a resolution to add snother member to the Committee of Claims -making six in all. Messrs. Mason, Hunter, Fessenden, and shers, spoke against the resolution, and Mr.

rerson again addressed the Senate in its faabsolute necessity for the services of an addiin great part out of the great increase of the business referred to it.

Mr. Iverson stated that 313 cases were re-

The resolution was not adopted. Mr. Hamlin presented a memorial calling the attention of the Senate to an alleged tendency of Navy officers to establish the Episcopal service in the Navy.

Mr. Bright moved that the resolution makwill be ready for occupancy be taken up and acted upor ; resolution passed. Mr. Broderick gave notice of his intention at an early day, to offer a bill for the estabishment of telegraphic communication from the Atlantic and Pacific Ocean; also, a bill to establish a line of steamships from San Francisco to China, via the Sandwich Islands and

The Pacific Railroad bill of last session be ing taken up, various amendments were of-Mr. Mason moved to lay all of them on the table; not agreed to. in the House of Representatives, Mr Washburne, of Ill., gave notice that he would introduce a bill for the establishment of an emigrant and mail route from an eligible point in Minnesota to Puget's Sound. Mr. Phe'ps, from the Committee of Ways and Means, submitted bills making appropristions for Military and Indian expenses for the year ending June 30, 1860.

Mr. Kellogg introduced a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish the information relative to the amounts sions are steady. Whiskey is firm at 26c. of imports into the United States from Britsh America under the reciprocity trenty. to., adopted.

The case of Judge Watrous was then taken up and further discussed.

THE HOUSE PRINTING .- We had barely fact that Mr. Steadman, the House Printer, at 1001@1091. had certainly indited a letter of resignation of his office or contract, and to state in equally brief language the facts superinducing | 160 that determination on his part, as currently | 120 understood. We have now to state further that it was banded to Mr. Cox. of Obio, who is believed subsequently to have been directed to withhold its delivery to the House, Mr. Steadman having determined to take longer time for reflection upon the matter before finally electing what course to pursue.

In the meanwhile, in addition to the commotion over the affair in the lobby, so much curiosity, feeling, and excitement concerning it is manifested among the members, as to ret der it certain that it will very shortly be poticed and discussed in open session.

to secure the House printing in case a change takes place, is one to give it to no other than Mr. John W. Forney, by and through the votes of the entire Republican party and as many Democrate as may by book or by crock, be drawn to his support .- Wash. Star.

The Navy Department is in receipt of despatches from Com. McIntosh of the gulf squadron, which confirms, in their prominent features, the newspaper accounts of the conduct of the British fleet in the gulf, and the recent boarding of the steamer Washington by the officers of the British war steamers Valorous and Leopard.

Capt. James N. Ward, of the Third Regiment of U. S. Infantry, died at St- Anthony, Minnesota, on the 6th instant. Capt. W was a native of Georgia, and was a worthy and gallant officer. His disease was consumption.
